DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-24 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9 and 17-23, drawn to a sale offer by a seller, classified in class 705, subclass 8.
 - II. Claims 10-16, drawn to mediating between a buyer and a seller, classified in class 705, subclass 37.
 - III. Claim 24, drawn to presenting ranges of allowable prices (performing a mathematical calculation), classified in class 705, subclass 80.
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
Inventions I and II and III are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because claims 1 and 17 recite "a transaction intermediary apparatus and a program stored in a recording medium for transaction intermediation". The subcombination claim 10 has separate utility such as "a memory including a memory region externally accessible to a buyer and a seller, an acceptor means responsive to entry to the apparatus, extractor means for searching the sale and purchase offers and writing the commodity description of the candidate sale offer and the determined buying price” and claim 24 has separate utility such as “allowing the buyer and seller to present ranges of allowable prices for commodities or services, presenting overlapping ranges of allowable prices, determining a selling price and a buying price higher than the selling price, and presenting the determined selling price” (performing a mathematical calculation).

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II and the search for Group II is not required for Group I, and the search for Group III is not required for Group I and Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
